

It's so convenient

In this lesson, you will talk about things you can do at the post office.

You should learn

Key Words phone, bill, pay, convenient, water, electricity, type

Core Words ago, somewhere, really

Key

Sentences

- I just came here to pay for it.
- I pay my water and electricity bills here as well.
- You can pay any type of bill here.

1 Warm-up

Which one is a letter, and which one is a bill? How do you know?

2 Focus

Use the words to make sentences.

water electricity bill

1. May I have a glass of _____?

2. The _____ is off.

3. Do you pay the _____ in the post office?

You may want to ask your teacher:

- 1. How do people usually pay bills nowadays?
- 2. In your country, where can people pay water or electricity bills?

3 Conversation

(Bruce meets his friend Emma in the post office.)

Bruce: Hey, Emma. Long time no see! How is everything going?

Emma: Great! It is nice to see you here. Are you here to send a letter?

Bruce: Yes. I only come to the post office to send letters. Is that your phone bill?

Emma: Yes, I received it two days ago.

Bruce: So, are you going to send it somewhere?

Emma: No, I just came here to pay for it.

Bruce: Really? Can we pay bills here? In a post office?

Emma: Yes! It is so convenient, isn't it?

I pay my water and electricity bills here as well.

Bruce: I didn't know that. I'll try it next time.

Emma: Sure, you can pay any type of bill here.

Bruce: That's great. Thanks for telling me.

Emma: You're welcome!

You may want to ask your teacher:

- 1. Do you pay bills at the post office in your country?
- 2. What are other convenient services at the post office?

4 Practice

Task 1: What did Emma really do in the post office? Complete these sentences.

Bruce thought Emma _____.

Actually, Emma wanted to ______ Task 2: Where do you often send your letters or mail? Talk about it with your teacher.

1. Is there a post office near your place?

2. How often do you go there?

3. What do you usually do there?

4. Do you think people go to the post office less than before? Why?

5 Summary

What can you do at a post office? Use the hints to make sentences.

